DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Invention I (claims 1-8) in the reply filed on 11/13/07 is acknowledged.

Claims 9-41 have been canceled.

Abstract

2. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Please, correct.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 2841

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-3, 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by McCulloch et al. (U.S. Patent 6,486,398, submitted by applicant).

As to claims 1-3, McCulloch discloses a electronic control module (10) as shown in figures 3-5, comprising: a housing (20) having a first aperture (140), and a substrate (300) disposed within the housing and having a second aperture (110) positioned adjacent to the first aperture (140), and including a hydrophobic vent assembly disposed over the second aperture and adheringly coupled to the substrate, and adapted to permit egress with respect to the housing of a gas therethrough, the hydrophobic vent assembly comprises a fluorinated polymer membrane (120) coupled to a structural screen comprised GORE-TEX®.

As to claim 8, McCulloch discloses the hydrophobic vent assembly is adheringly coupled to the substrate via solder (317).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over McCulloch in view of Wrasidlo et al. (U.S. Patent 4,937,196).

As to claim 4, McCulloch discloses all of the limitation of the claimed invention except for a structural screen is a 180-mesh copper soldered to the substrate. Wrasidlo shows a membrane bioreaction system as shown in figures 1-3 comprising a mesh copper (4) solder to a membrane (2 or 5). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have a teaching of Wrasidlo employed in the module of McCulloch in order to achieve excellent protection.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 5-7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Handique et al. and Kalinowski et al. disclose related art.
